Story

- Before you read Which machine do the children use in the story?
- Watch or listen and read.

Abig mess

Right, let's get started! Fatma, you and I are going to make chocolates for your mum's birthday.

We can use the microwave.

Have you ever made chocolates before?

I've made a box for the chocolates.

Now I need to decorate it.

No, I haven't. I made a chocolate cake last year for my mum, but I haven't made chocolates.

It's hot and it isn't solid anymore!

That's right, Bo! The chocolate has melted in the microwave!

OK, so we've melted the chocolate. Next, we have to pour it into these paper cases. Then we have to decorate our chocolates!

8

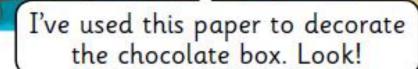

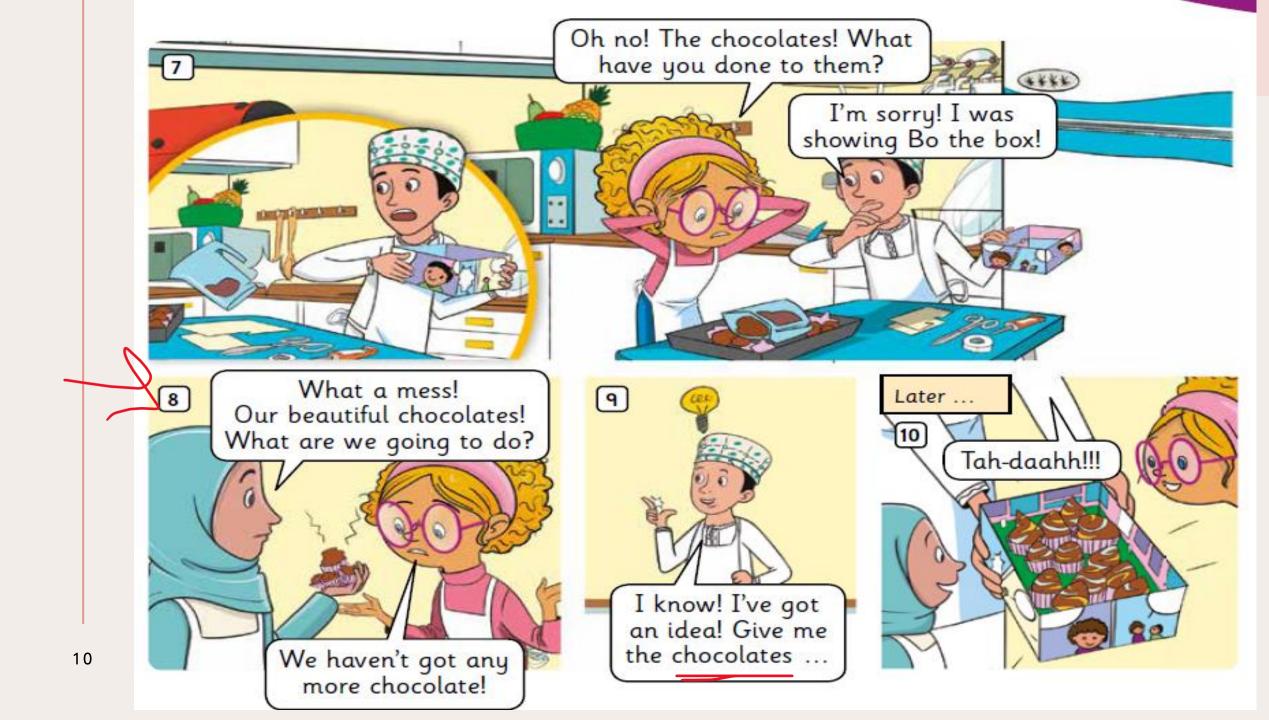

You're using silver and gold! I thought you couldn't eat metal! Have you ever eaten silver?

No, I haven't! These decorations aren't metal. They're sugar!

What have you made, Sami?

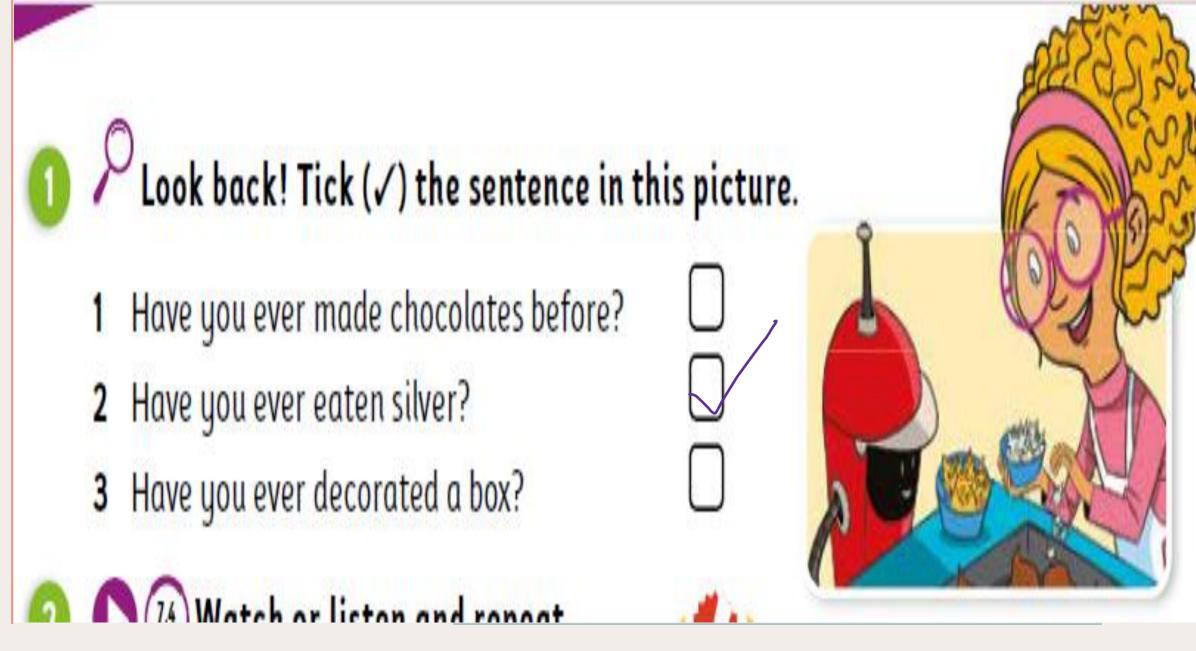

- How did Sami make the new chocolates?

  Go to page 102 to find out.

  He melted the chocolate and decorations in the microwave again.
- After you read Number the sentences in the correct order to retell the story.
  - a Fatma and Lottie decorate the chocolates and Sami makes a box for them.

  - c Fatma and Lottie take the jug out of the microwave. ____2_
  - d The chocolates are a big mess!
  - e The children are making chocolates for Fatma and Sami's mum.
  - f Bo sees melted chocolate for the first time.
- 6 Act out the story.

After you read Look and order.

Complete the sentences. Then match them with the pictures in Activity 1.
